stated above I leave it to your judgment wheather you don't think I ought to at least be re-emburst for the lose I suffered during your proceedings and very plainly done you a great deal of good.

I could of done the same as several done on the states side held out my hand but I do not beleave in same, as a christen and the father of these children, I want what ever I get in a decent fair, way And when I write to you
